

Kristine Brands, Associate Professor of Accounting, Regis University, Denver, Colorado

Kristine Brands is an Associate Professor of Accounting at Regis University, Denver, CO in the College of Business and Economics. She has extensive work experience in accounting, controllership, auditing, software engineering, and financial systems design and implementation. Her research interest areas are sustainability and CSR, business analytics, and XBRL and interactive data. She speaks at national and international accounting conferences on XBRL, business analytics, and accounting and sustainability issues. She has authored numerous articles for Strategic Finance, Accountancy Age, and CFO.com. She is a member of IMA's ICMA Board of Regents and the Technology Solutions and Practices Committee. She holds a BA in History from the University of Rochester, an MBA in Accounting from Emory University, a Certificate in Applied Science in Software Engineering from Harvard University Extension, a Doctorate in Management from Colorado Technical University, and is a CMA.